

FROM WASHINGTON.

[Special Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 11, 1890.

Ex-Senator Jones, of Virginia, a negro, now a watchman at the Capitol, who for the last month has been in the Petersburg district, working for the election of Langston, has come back. He says his race in his district has cut loose from McNamee, Brady and the whole white gang who have heretofore been ruling that district, and that hereafter they will vote for democrats in preference to them every time. He says they all voted against Langston, and that the negroes have at last found out that they have been used simply as monkeys to pull the chestnuts out of the fire for them. He says the negroes' intention of downing the white republicans in his district by the election of democrats, will be put into execution at next spring's election for county officers.

Gen. B. F. Butler argued a patent case in the U. S. Supreme Court to-day. He has certainly lost all his old physical ability, and his speech to-day indicated that some of his intellectual force had gone with it. Mr. Versey, one of the members of the Old Dominion republican league of this city now under indictment here for violating the civil service law, has just returned from his, Petersburg, Va., district, where he went to vote at the recent election. He says all the white people in the district voted against Langston, and that pictures of a negro and a white man, "check by jowl," adorned all the voting precincts in the district, and had a "powerful" effect.

The flurry in financial matters in New York to-day did not extend to or affect this city. A banker here in talking about it said it was confined to Wall street, and that the people of the country do not feel it and are not interested in it.

Francis O. Roberts was to-day appointed a ganger in the internal revenue service at Petersburg, Va.

Langston, fresh from his Waterloo, is at his home here to-day. He is by no means as chipper as he was soon after the republican members of the House elected him to Congress, but with an assumption he still insists that he was elected last Tuesday by four or five thousand majority (he said he) for he went away he would be elected by eight thousand, though the official vote of every precinct in his district has been received and shows that his white democratic opponent was elected by nearly three thousand majority.

A reception is to be given here to Messrs. O'Brien and Dillon, the Irish refugees, but neither the President nor Secretary Blaine will attend it. They will not, however, go out of the city to avoid the Irishmen, as they did to steer clear of the Court of Paris.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Representative O'Ferrall says he thinks the democratic party should elect the best man for Speaker regardless of where he may live.

William McMillen and Peter Monroe were expelled from the Philadelphia Democratic City Committee last night for treachery against the democratic ticket at the recent election.

In Pennsylvania the official count shows the election of Mr. Stewart, republican, to Congress in the twenty-fourth district, over Mr. Cray, democrat, whose election has heretofore been claimed, making the Pennsylvania delegation stand 18 republicans and 10 democrats.

The democratic ward and city committee last night nominated Nathan Matthews, Jr., as candidate for Mayor of Boston. Mr. Matthews is chairman of the Massachusetts State democratic committee, and recent denials of victories in that State are largely due to his executive ability.

An error in footing up returns in Chicago is said to have been discovered, by which Mr. Hoppin, a republican, who was supposed to have been elected to the Legislature, is shown to have been defeated by his democratic opponent, Mr. Kinney. This will give the democratic majority of one in the Legislature, and assures the election of Gen. John M. Palmer to the United States Senate.

A dispatch from Washington to the Philadelphia Record says: "President Harrison has become seriously alarmed during the last week, and he is trying to make up his mind whether he shall cast his lot with Blaine and come out squarely for reciprocity, and make that the battle cry of the next campaign, or whether he will stick to McKinley and force the party to make still one more campaign on a high protection basis."

VIRGINIA NEWS.

General Thomas L. Rorer is ill, at his home, near Charlottesville.

There is a move on foot to establish a large Southern female college at Lynchburg.

Mr. Henry F. Phillips, a leading merchant of Richmond, died Sunday night of heart disease.

The Irish citizens of Richmond, in mass meeting, have decided to invite Dillon and O'Brien to Richmond.

The Virginia Conference M. E. Church South will meet in annual session in Lynchburg to-morrow. Bishop Hargrove will preside.

George Jackson, aged forty-five years, was arrested near Charlottesville, Va., yesterday charged with an assault upon his thirteen year-old stepdaughter.

Some of the Richmond people, who are interested, are trying to force Gov. McKinley to call a special session of the Legislature but this proposition is opposed by every other section of the State.

The Protestant Episcopal Convention of Virginia in May, 1892—not 1891—will act upon the proposition to divide the Virginia Diocese. It is said that there will certainly be two dioceses instead of one; possibly three. It is understood that if the State is divided into two—an eastern and a western diocese—Bishop Randolph would still remain in Richmond as assistant to Bishop Whittle.

MONEY FOR THE MILITARY.—The State Military Board met at the Governor's office in Richmond yesterday evening.

The following appropriation of funds was made: Infantry, $250 per man; cavalry, artillery, and mounted officers, $350 per man.

For headquarters use, $9 for each full and staff officer present at inspection.

Governor McKinley has drawn from the National Government $6,000 in fatigue uniforms, which will be distributed among the different arms of the service.

FATAL ACCIDENT IN AN ELEVATOR.—Alexander Hexter, senior member of the firm of Hexter Bros., clothing merchants, Philadelphia, was instantly killed yesterday while in an elevator in his own store. He leaned out of the elevator to give instructions to an employee, apparently forgetting that he was ascending, when the back of his neck was caught against the ceiling, his skull was crushed and he was almost decapitated. Mr. Hexter was 36 years of age and a manager of the Jewish Foster Home.

Negotiations are perfected by which the Pennsylvania Company will on the first of January take control of the Vandalia line. The deal is said to include the Terre Haute and Logansport division.

After this Newberry made his way to Virginia where he took the alias of Willard. He established himself near Marshall, Fauquier county, and spent money so lavishly on his acquaintances that he got to be a favorite in the neighborhood. He took board with Mr. Shackelford, a highly esteemed farmer, and had the audacity to court one of the daughters of the host, and the wedding, it is said, was to have occurred in a few days.

Inspector Watkins was after him, however, and on Saturday evening, with two assistants, made the arrest. They found their man at Shackelford's house, and had him covered with revolvers before he realized that the officials were after him. He gave in with very good grace, seeing that resistance was useless. On being searched $8,000 in cash and some valuable jewelry were found on his person. Newberry comes of an excellent Virginia family, and is said to be a nephew of W. C. Newberry, who has just been elected to Congress from Chicago.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

It is rumored that Major McKinley may succeed Mr. Smith as minister of St. Petersburg.

A cut-off line of tracks near Relay Station will reduce the time made by the B. & O. trains between Baltimore and Washington.

The National Horse Show of America opened at Madison Square Garden, New York, yesterday, with a great attendance and the finest display of horses ever made in this country.

Winfield Doran, the phenomenal boy smoker, has just died in Trenton, N. J., of diphtheria, in the fifth year of his age. His mother says that he smoked from the time that he was seven months old.

The Irish Parliamentary party arrived in New York yesterday and last night were welcomed at the Metropolitan Opera House by Gov. Hill and a large audience. Ex-President Cleveland, Vice-President Morton, Chauncey M. Depew and others were present.

Joe Jackson, one of the Rube Burrows gang, confined in the penitentiary at Jackson, Miss., for some time, waiting trial for train robbery, and whose trial was to have begun yesterday morning in the Federal Court, succeeded by jumping from the third floor of the corridor of the court to the ground, a distance of sixty feet. His neck was broken by the fall.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Pope has ordered Catholics in Italy to take no part in the elections.

It is reported that Gen. Boulanger has left the Island of Jersey for an unknown destination.

The roof of a house in Prague collapsed yesterday, demolishing a scaffold upon which a number of men were working. Several of the men were killed.

Advices from Santiago de Cuba say that the famous bandit Velazquez has been killed by the government troops, and that his whole band, numbering ninety-four men, with their arms and ammunition, have surrendered.

The Berliner Tageblatt records the suicide of an army officer, who is referred to by the paper as "Colonel Von P." It appears that the unfortunate man was recently compelled to withdraw from the Union Club owing to his connection with a scandalous gaming affair. The disgrace of his enforced retirement being more than he could bear, the unhappy officer blew out his brains with a revolver.

ELECTROPLATING THE HUMAN BODY.

There is in Paris a physician who wants to introduce the art of electroplating the dead with copper. His process is said to consist in first embalming the body which is to be preserved, and then placing it in a bath of concentrated solution of sulfate of silver, from which it emerges the color of polished silver. A very thin layer of copper is then deposited on the features, which are afterward varnished, the preservation of the resemblance to the original being carefully insured throughout the whole process. The Parisian doctor has a scale of prices from $60 to $80 for coppering of an infant to $600 and $800 for a grown person. As a concession to the aesthetic tastes of his customers, he adds that the body can be silvered or gilded as desired.

A VIRGINIAN VICTIMIZED.—Several confederates were victimized at an old farmer living near Woodstock last Saturday. It was the old game of pretending to sell $1,000 in what they alleged to be counterfeit money for $400 good money. The confidence men handed the farmer a tin box, reported to contain the $1,000, which he was not to open for several days. As usual the money was not in the box. Two of the alleged confidence men are in jail at Woodstock now. They have given assumed names. They are supposed to be members of the gang lately operating in Maryland and Pennsylvania. The man who got the $400 has not been captured.

MRS. WUCHTER'S FATE ENDED.—It is 226 days since the enforced fast of invalid Mrs. Wuchter, of White Hall, Pa., began; but at the beginning of the past week she broke the fast. The nourishment from moistened toast without is solid substance, and the stimulating juice of oranges with other liquids, have been very low and retained by the wonderful invalid every day during the past week. She complained yesterday of pain in the throat and chest, yet conversed quite freely. She said that during all the past months of suffering she has continually prayed that she might be able to swallow at least a few drops of liquid, and God has answered her prayer.

THE WALL STREET SCARE.—The excitement in the New York Stock Market yesterday was mentioned in the GAZETTE. The business world has dubbed yesterday's slump "a rich man's panic." The stocks are held mainly by strong people, and it is remarked that there were no failures of note reported since the downward movement began. Mr. Jay Gould in an interview takes the "bull" side of the question. Secretary Windom was kept advised of the condition of the New York money market. He did not feel called on to take any action beyond the purchase of all the silver bullion that was offered to the Department. He took 600,000 ounces at 102.99 up to 103.75.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The early London prices this morning were all materially higher than our figures of last evening, and this market followed with advances of from 1 to 2 per cent. There was some hesitation for a short time, when a per cent. fall of stocks were poured upon the market and prices were quickly going downward at a most rapid rate. The low price brought in more buying, however, and the force that opened the market up began again to show its influence, and a smart rally took place. Most of the list generally regained the early losses, and in almost everything fractional advances were scored. The market at 11 o'clock was still very active and unsettled at the improvement. Money is tight, with no offers and 20 per cent. bid.

ALEXANDRIA MARKET, Nov. 11.—There is nothing new to report from the four markets, while the feeling continues easy; neither millers nor holders are pressing sales. Wheat is quiet but steady at the recent decline; all prime lots are ready to sell, and the range for the offerings, which are of a variety of grades, is from 85 to 101. Corn is firmer; at 11.63 62; new 54.63. Oats 49.53. Rye 60.75. Eggs 25. Potatoes, Chickens, Apples and other produce are wanted. Butter is very dull at 13.15.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 10.—Hogs—There is a heavy falling off in receipts as compared with last week, and the market is correspondingly easier. There are nearly 3400 head less receipts than last week and the quotations are lower than they were then. Trade is reported generally as only fair. ## ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

More Revolutions.

LA LIBERTAD, Nov. 11.—The revolution, which has been expected for months and which has been gaining headway since the conclusion of the war between Salvador and Guatemala, has broken out in Honduras. Several dispatches have been received by the Salvadorian government in regard to the affair. Ouelis to the effect that on Friday last a part of the garrison of Tegucigalpa revolted and under the leadership of Gen. Sanchez took possession, after hard fighting, of the capitol building and arsenal. Since then street skirmishing has been of daily occurrence and Sanchez and his forces now have President Bagan surrounded in one of the wards of the city, and it is believed he will be forced to surrender, unless other garrisons arrive at the scene of the revolt within two or three days. It is believed that Barillas will attempt to extend aid to his ally, Bogran, and in doing so will precipitate a general war in Central America, as it is understood that if he takes a hand in the present trouble Barillas will call him to time, with the full consent of Nicaragua and Costa Rica, with whom Salvador will be leagued in case of general international strife. If Bogran falls there is a possibility that the country will, by common consent of the masses, be divided between Guatemala, Salvador and Nicaragua.

LA LIBERTAD, San Salvador, Nov. 11.—On the evening of the 9th instant a part of the garrison at Tegucigalpa, Honduras, incited by General Louguin Sanchez revolted and took possession of the arsenal. President Bogran at once took the field against the insurgents, rallying the pueblos to his support. Already there has been severe fighting. San Salvador has up to the present time remained neutral.

A Fight for a Corpse! PUEBLO, COL., Nov. 11.—Four years ago a conductor on the Rio Grande road named W. A. Jameson was laid off by a change in the management. He bade his wife and child good-bye and went to Texas to secure work. Soon after he left Mrs. Jameson became very friendly with Tom Taylor, a railroad superintendent. Last Saturday Jameson was killed at Clearendon, Texas, by the cars and his body was brought here for interment and taken in charge by the Order of Railway Conductors and the Masonic fraternity. After much pleading the guilty wife was given an order on the undertakers for the body. The undertakers got the corpse and were half way to Mrs. Jameson's house when the conductors ordered the hearse back and again placed the coffin in the Masonic temple. Mr. Jameson carried $2,500 insurance with the Order of Railway Conductors and $5,000 with the Masons. When his wife went to live with Taylor, Jameson changed the papers from his wife to his daughter. By holding the body of the deceased in her home over eight months she would get control of this money. The two societies declare that the money shall go to the child when she becomes of age and if Mrs. Jameson repudiates the body they will swear out a warrant charging her with adultery.

Children in a Panic.

FIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 11.—William Fountain, a traveling showman, advertised a show for children, stipulating to give a present with every ticket. The performance was to have taken place in Ewell's Hall yesterday afternoon, and over one thousand children thronged into the building. There had apparently been no preparation for a performance, but the children had their minds set upon the presents they were to receive and anxiously waited. Suddenly Fountain appeared, and lighting a crackling parlor match cried "Fire!" A panic ensued and the children made a wild rush for the doors. The larger ones trampled upon the smaller, and many were horribly bruised. The police after a time allayed the panic and quieted the fears of the children. Fortunately none of them were killed, though there were a number of mangled and broken limbs. Fountain locked himself in a room. The police battered down the door and arrested him. A woman who accompanied him was also taken into custody. Both refuse to make any explanation.

New York Stock Market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—There is a panic among the holders of the Villard stocks and the prices for North American and North Pacific have collapsed. One broker sold 15,000 shares of North American and 50,000 shares were sold by other brokers causing a decline of 8 per cent. Northern Pacific P. F. D. has already declined 12 per cent. since the opening, most of it since noon, and the price has fallen one per cent. at a time. The crowds in the Villard stocks is enormous.

2:15 The trading in the stock market after 2 o'clock was marked by the apparent withdrawal of all support and a specially vicious attack by the bears upon the Villard stocks which brought about the most rapid and disastrous part of the present decline. There was a fractional reaction in the general list toward 1 p. m., but the steady drop in Northern Pacific, which was accompanied by rumors of a noted Villard house being in financial difficulty, was such that the entire list soon became demoralized, and lower from the noon figures reached an average of from 1 to 3 per cent. There was a perfect panic in the Villards and Northern Pacific.

2:30 p. m.—There is at this moment a slight recovery in Northern Pacific, but North American still remains weak.

The London Stock Market

LONDON, Nov. 11.—noon.—The stock market is feverish. Nearly everybody is buying to close bear accounts. Money is much easier owing to a rumor that much gold has gone into the Bank of England.

The stock market was rampant at the close. Everybody was scrambling to purchase securities and prices were leaping upward two per cent at a bound. At the close of the market the prices of consols for both money and the account, as compared with the prices ruling at 12:30 p. m. were unchanged.

Trouble Feared.

GRAHAM, Tex., Nov. 11.—Every peace officer in Young county is in jail, having been indicted by the U. S. grand jury for participation in a recent assault on the jail to hang three murderers. Thattal of three members of the mob is going on. Twenty-five special U. S. deputies guard the jail, but the town is full of determined citizens, armed with Winchester, who say the U. S. court may convict, but their neighbors shall not suffer the penalty. A riot will be precipitated by a conviction.

When great preparations were being made in London for the celebration of the Great Queen's Jubilee, loyal citizens anxious to participate, were rapidly curing all their aches and pains beforehand, by a generous use of Salvation Oil.
